SAMUEL TINSLEY'S NEW PUBLICATIONS.

ITALY REVISITED. By A. Gallenga (the Times Correspondent). Author of "Italy, Past and Present," "Country Life in Piedmont," &amp;c. 2 vols. demy 8vo, 30s. [Second Edition, this day.]

TIMES, Nov. 11, 1875.—"Mr. Gallenga's new volumes on Italy will be welcome to those who care for an unprejudiced account of the prospects and present condition of the country. ... In noticing Mr. Gallenga's most interesting volumes, we have been obliged to confine ourselves chiefly to topics of grave national importance, and we wish we could also have done justice to his impressions of the Italy he revisited as seen in its lighter and social aspects. We can only say we believe the chapters we have neglected will prove the most attractive to the many English who are familiar with the country he describes so well, and we recommend the people who think of wintering there to get the book and read it for themselves."

SPECTATOR, Nov. 20, 1875.—"The two volumes abound in interesting matter, with vivid sketches of places and persons,—Florence, for instance,—Garibaldi and Mazzini. The personal reminiscences, too, of the author's blood-stained campaign with Prince Napoleon in 1859 are notably interesting."

OVER the BORDERS of CHRISTENDOM

and ISLAMIAH; or, Travels in the Summer of 1875 through Hungary, Slavonia, Servia, Bosnia, Herzegovina, Dalmatia, and Montenegro to the North of Albania. By JAMES CREAGH, Author of "A Scamper to Sebastopol," 2 vols. large post 8vo, 25s.

PUBLIC OPINION, Dec. 11, 1875.—"Nothing appears to have escaped Captain Creagh's observant eyes and ears, and his narrative has all the charm of a well-written romance.... Captain Creagh has a satirical as well as humorous vein; and the history of Servia, with its rival royal houses, descended respectively from the pig-jobber and pig-owner, is told with comic force.... The volumes are made further instructive by a very lucid, though necessarily brief, history of the Lower Danube."

SECOND EDITION OF

UNTRODDEN SPAIN, and her BLACK

COUNTRY. By HUGH JAMES ROSE, M.A., of Oriel College, Oxford. 2 vols. 8vo, 30s.

The TIMES says:—"These volumes form a very pleasing commentary on a land and a people to which Englishmen will always turn with sympathetic interest."

The SATURDAY REVIEW says:—"His title of 'Untrodden Spain' is no misnomer. He leads us into scenes and among classes of Spaniards where few English writers have preceded him.... We can only recommend our readers to get it and search for themselves. Those who are most intimately acquainted with Spain will best appreciate its varied excellence."

The SPECTATOR says:—"The author's kindness is as conspicuous as his closeness of observation and fairness of judgment; his sympathy with the people inspires his pen as happily as does his artistic appreciation of the country; and both have combined in the production of a work of striking novelty and sterling value."

ROBA D'ITALIA; or, Italian Lights and Shadows: a Record of Travel. By CHARLES W. HECKETHORN. 2 vols. 8vo, 30s.

CANTON and the BOGUE: the Narrative of an Eventful Six Months in China. By WALTER WILLIAM MUNDY. Crown 8vo, 7s. 6d.

DICKENS'S LONDON; or, London in the Works of Charles Dickens. By T. EDGAR PEMBERTON, Author of "Under Pressure." Crown 8vo, 6s. [This day.]

POPULAR NEW NOVELS.

KATE RANDAL'S BARGAIN. By Mrs.

EILOART, Author of "The Curate's Discipline," "Some of Our Girls," "Meg," &amp;c. 3 vols. 31s. 6d.

"One of the best novels the author has written."

Athenaeum."Must be ranked higher than any of its author's previous efforts.... Deserves to be described as a really well-written and thoroughly readable book."—Scotsman.

 ing-room table."—Athenaeum.
 "The book is not, as is generally the case with these selections, an indiscriminate collection of pieces of poetry. On the contrary, its pages treat entirely of domestic interests, feelings, and duties; of the joys and sorrows, and hopes and fears,

ILLUSTRATED BOOKS FOR CHILDREN.

Second Thousand, small post 8vo, 5s.
SIX to SIXTEEN. A Story for Girls. By Mrs. EWING. With Ten Illustrations by Mrs. Allingham.
 "The homely good sense and humour of the bulk of the story are set off by the pathos of its opening and its close, and a soft and beautiful light, as of dawn and sunset, is thrown round the substantial English ideal of what a girl's education ought to be, which runs through the tale. Mrs. Ewing's book will hardly be equalled by any of the many stories for girls which the coming Christmas is sure to produce. And there is this further excellence in it—that it is quite as good and entertaining as a story for boys as it is for the purpose for which it is more especially designed."—Spectator.

"One of the best books of the year. Everything she writes is full of talent, and also full of perception and common sense."—Saturday Review.

"There is in it not only a great deal of common sense, but there is true humour. . . . We have not met a healthier or breezier tale for girls for a long period."—Academy.

"A beautifully told story, full of humour and pathos, and bright sketches of scenery and character."—Pall Mall Gazette.

 graphies of certain elephants, squirrels, blackbirds, and what not, who lived in the flesh; and we only wish that human

A CONCISE HISTORY of PAINTING, SCULPTURE, AND ARCHITECTURE.

3 vols. with 326 plates, 2l. 17s. 6d.

AGINCOURT (SEROUX D') HISTORY of ART by its MONUMENTS, from its decline in the Fourth Century, to its Restoration in the Sixteenth Century. 3 vols. in 1, royal folio, with all the 326 plates (cells 5l. 5s.), half morocco, uncut, 2l. 17s. 6d. 1847.

This English edition is divided as follows:—ARCHITECTURE, 78 plates; SCULPTURE, 51 plates; PAINTING, 204 plates. To Antiquaries and lovers of the Fine Arts, the book is indispensable; it connects the works of Winckelmann and Cicognara, and forms with them a most interesting series.

"This fine work was the first in which the idea of exhibiting the Progress of Art, by a series of its noblest monuments, was perfectly carried out. By a series of accurate Engravings from celebrated Monuments, we trace the transitions of Art from the classic period to our own time. Sculpture, Painting, and the Art of Illumination; and the Art of Engraving on Wood, on Gems and on Medals are similarly represented.

"It is a work that has long been sought and prized by all who could afford the high price at which only it was to be procured. No Library, Architect, Painter, Sculptor, or any one connected with the Fine Arts, should be without such a work."

BERNARD QUARTCH, 15 Piccadilly, London.

HURST & BLACKETT'S NEW WORKS.

MY YOUTH, by SEA and LAND, from 1809

to 1816. By CHARLES LOFTUS, formerly of the Royal Navy, late of the Coldstream Guards. 2 vols. 21s.
"Major Loftus gives us a book as entertaining as 'Midshipman Easy,' and as instructive as a book of travels. It has not a dull page in it, and whether by the camp fire, in the barrack library, or on shipboard, we are confident it will receive a warm welcome, whilst its literary merit will commend it to those unconnected with the service."
[United Service Mag.]

CELEBRITIES I HAVE KNOWN: with EPISODES: POLITICAL, SOCIAL, SPORTING, and THEATRICAL. By Lord WILLIAM PITT LENNOX.
2 vols. 8vo, 30s.

"Lord William Lennox from his earliest days has lived on terms of intimacy with persons of high political, military, theatrical, and literary celebrity. He has an eye for character, can tell a good story, and has plenty of good stories to tell. His pages are full of interest.
Celebrities of the first importance are presented in their habits as they lived, and many will not think worse of the memoirs for the genial and appreciative spirit in which the writer has drawn the portraits of nearly all the distinguished personages who pass beneath his pen."
[Pall Mall Gazette.]

and air, of missionary work among the Namaqua, or the strange races of remote Ovampo land, he has always something fresh to tell us. The narrative of personal adventure and of scenes of native war is frank and graphic in the extreme."—Graphic.

LIST OF

NEW AND RECENT PUBLICATIONS.

Just published, profusely illustrated, large 8vo, cloth extra, gilt edges, 31s. 6d.

THE SOUTHERN STATES OF NORTH AMERICA:

An Illustrated Record of an extensive Tour of Observation during the years 1872-74, through what were formerly the Slave States of North America.

By EDWARD KING,

With Maps and 536 Engravings on Wood from original sketches, by J. WELLS CHAMPNEY.

SATURDAY REVIEW.

"It would not now be possible to find in any book published in England wood engravings of the same minuteness, precision, and beauty as are here to be seen on every page."

GRAPHIC.

"An illustrated volume of travels of very unusual excellence..... Mr. King's sketches are quite the revelation of a new world."

SPECTATOR.

"Grave and gay are mingled throughout the volume with admirable skill. It is idle to attempt even to give an idea of the contents of this book, with its eight hundred closely printed pages, and its striking illustrations nearly as numerous. If you want facts, political or commercial, or bright sketches of social life, or graphic descriptions of nature in the Southern States, you cannot do better than go to this work for them."

WORLD.

"This charming volume..... It is difficult to know whether to give the palm to the writer or the artist, whose joint labour has produced this volume, but each has done his work excellently well."

ANGLO-AMERICAN TIMES.

"All who desire to be fully acquainted with the present condition of the Southern States could nowhere else find an authority so exhaustive, descriptive, and reliable."

NOTES AND QUERIES.

"So beautiful a book of travel and of the incidents of such way-faring and sojourning in America has never hitherto been published. There is probably no book existing on the same subject that affords so much amusement and adds so much to previous knowledge as this."

In 2 vols. large 4to, splendidly illustrated, cloth-extra, gilt edges, 42s.

TRAVELS IN SOUTH AMERICA,

FROM THE PACIFIC TO THE ATLANTIC OCEAN. By PAUL MARCOY. Illustrated by Five Hundred and Twenty-five Engravings on Wood, of which Fifty-four are full page (measuring 9½ by 6½ inches), and Ten Maps, from drawings by the Author.

TIMES.

"M. Marcoy sketches nearly everything which he describes, and gives us hundreds of pictures of the life, manners, and scenery which come under his eye. Such a book is a treat which the English reader does not often get..... If the British public will not believe that there is more sound instruction in such a work as this than in a geographic manual, and more amusement than in a novel, we can only say, let him alone."

STANDARD.

"Never has there been given to the world such a picture of South America."

DAILY NEWS.

"More is to be learned about South America from a perusal of these pages and a study of these illustrations than from an examination of the library richest in books of travel."

SATURDAY REVIEW.

"M. Marcoy's splendid record of a recent journey from the Pacific to the Atlantic, through the whole breadth of Peru and Brazil, is a work which must be seen in order to be appreciated..... The result of his ardent and philosophical pursuit of knowledge and adventure is to enrich our literature with a mass of matter imperfectly, if at all, accessible heretofore, embodied, too, in a form suited in a peculiar degree to attract and even fascinate every reader who is susceptible of the impressions of art."

SPECTATOR.

"M. Marcoy is one of the most entertaining of travellers. Anything more vivid and amusing than his descriptions of life and manners could not easily be found."

THE UNIVERSE; or, The Infinitely Great and Infinitely Little. By F. A. POUCHET, M.D. Illustrated by 272 Engravings on Wood and a Frontispiece in Colours. New and Cheaper Edition. Medium 8vo, cloth extra, gilt edges, 12s. 6d.

"We can honestly commend this work, which is as admirably as it is copiously illustrated."—Times.

"It would be difficult to hit upon a more attractive volume."—Pail Mail Gazette.

"This volume will prove a capital present to young persons."—Athenæum.

"A good pioneer to more exact studies. We have no doubt it will find what it deserves—popularity among English readers."—Saturday Review.

"We know of no more attractive book for a beginner, or one more likely to excite to further study of natural science. It is as instructive as a school book, and as interesting as Robinson Crusoe."—Land and Water.

"We can congratulate Mr. Wilson on the admirable selection he has made from the works of eminent Scottish Bards..... besides which we have a concise biography of the poets, with judicious notices of their work and critical comments on their writings. The book is admirably printed and got up, and will form a very appropriate Christmas gift to those who prefer works of abiding interest to more ephemeral publications."—John Bull.

"Miss Shedlock may be congratulated on having produced one of the most original and ingenious Christmas books of the season. Her 'Trip to Music-Land' is an attempt, and a very successful one, to gild the bitter pill of musical instruction with the attraction of a fairy tale. She endeavours, and with great cleverness works out her idea, to give in this handsome quarto an allegorical and pictorial exposition of the elements of music, which in a most novel and entertaining manner, obviates much of the repulsive drudgery that is attached to rudimentary musical teaching. Mr. James has greatly aided the accomplished authoress by making her explanations additionally attractive by his humorous and original illustrations."—Daily Telegraph.
